Time is of the essence in the performance of the Services and delivery of the Products by Seller specified in this Order. Failure of Seller to make delivery of Products or to provide Services within the time specified on the face of the Order, or within any extension specified by written change Order, shall be a breach hereof.

For the purposes of this Order, an event of "force majeure" shall mean any or all of the following events or occurrences: strikes, work stoppages or other labor difficulties; fires, floods or other acts of God; transportation delays; acts of government or any subdivision or agency thereof; or any other cause, whether or not similar to the causes or occurrence enumerated above which are beyond the control of the Party claiming the occurrence of a force majeure event and which delays, interrupts or prevents such Party from performing its obligations under this Order. After cessation of a force majeure event declared by the Buyer, neither Party shall be obligated to deliver or purchase goods not so delivered and purchased during the force majeure period.

(b) Seller represents and warrants that only new and authentic materials are used in Products required to be delivered to Buyer and that the Products delivered contains no Counterfeit Parts. No other material, part, or component other than a new and authentic part is to be used unless approved in advance in writing by Buyer. Seller must make available to Buyer, at Buyer's request, OEM documentation that authenticates traceability of the components to that applicable OEM. Purchase of parts/components from independent distributors is not authorized unless first approved in writing by Buyer. Seller must present complete and compelling support for its request and include in its request all actions to ensure the parts/components thus procured are legitimate parts. Buyer's approval of Seller request(s) does not relieve Seller's responsibility to comply with all Order requirements, including the representations and warranties in this paragraph.

(c) Seller shall maintain a documented system in accordance with SAE AS5553 (policy, procedure, or other documented approach) that provides for prior notification and Buyer approval before parts/components are procured from sources other than OEMs or through the OEM's authorized distribution chain. Seller shall provide copies of such documentation for its system for Buyer's inspection upon Buyer's request.

(d) If the Seller is providing electronic components/devices only, the following certification applies:

Certification of Origin of Product:

Acceptance of this Order constitutes confirmation by the Seller that it is either the Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM), Original Component Manufacturer (OCM), or a franchised or authorized distributor of the OEM/OCM for the Product herein procured. Seller further warrants that OEM/OCM acquisition documentation that authenticates traceability of the components to that applicable OEM is available upon request. If the Seller is not the OEM/OCM or a franchised or authorized distributor, the Seller confirms by acceptance of this Order that each Product supplied to Buyer has been procured from the OEM/OCM or a franchised or authorized distributor of the OEM/OCM. The Seller further warrants that OEM/OCM acquisition traceability documentation is accurate and available to Buyer upon Buyer's request.

(e) Seller shall flow the requirements of this Section 13 to its subcontractors and suppliers at any tier for the performance of this Order.

This includes surveillance of products, systems, procedures, facilities and records associated with components they have purchased. If the failure to perform is caused by the default of a subcontractor at any tier, and if the cause of the default is beyond the control of both Seller and subcontractor, and without the fault or negligence of either, Seller shall not be liable for any excess costs for failure to perform, unless the subcontracted Services or Products were obtainable from other sources in sufficient time for Seller to meet the required delivery schedule.
- E. If this Order is terminated for default, Buyer may require Seller to transfer title and deliver to Buyer, as directed by Buyer, any completed or partially completed Products, supplies, materials, plans, drawings, information, and contract rights (collectively referred to as "manufacturing materials" in this clause) that Seller has specifically produced or acquired for the terminated portion of this Order. If this Order requires Seller's personnel to enter Buyer's or Buyer's customer's premises, Seller agrees to have its personnel, engaged in the performance of Services hereunder, report to Buyer's or Buyer's customer's premises, at times to be specified by Buyer, so that Buyer may, at buyer's discretion, provide said personnel with identification badges, which will permit such personnel to enter and leave the premises where the work is to be performed, as Buyer determines appropriate under security requirements. Seller personnel may be required to be escorted by Buyer or Buyer's customer personnel while on Buyer's or Buyer's customer's premises. Failure to deliver acceptable bonds within the time allowed shall constitute a material breach of this Order and entitle Buyer to (1) cancel Seller's right to proceed with the Order, and (2) recover from Seller any damages resulting from such breach. If any surety on such bonds becomes unacceptable to Buyer or if the Order price is substantially increased after such bonds are delivered, Seller shall promptly deliver additional bond security as Buyer may require.

Seller acknowledges that, as a part of Seller's proposal effort, it had an opportunity to review relevant documentation. Seller further warrants that it did such a review, that it notified Buyer in writing of any missing documentation, deficiencies or concerns that Seller identified in any documents, and that the issues raised by Seller were adequately addressed in this Order at the time of acceptance.

45. COMPLETE AGREEMENT
